IFA 2018: James Blunt confirmed for IFA-Concert

Berlin, 21 November 2017 - James Blunt is the first artist to be confirmed for the 'IFA-Concerts 2018'. On 2nd September 2018 he'll be thrilling the audience playing songs from his current album „The Afterlove“ at the IFA Sommergarten in Berlin's exhibition grounds along with a selection of his greatest hits.

He had his break into the music business in 2005 with his huge hit „You're Beautiful“ and his debut album it came from, „Back To Bedlam“, became the biggest selling album of the "noughties" in the UK. The highly acclaimed album is also the 17th biggest selling album in the last 60 years and has received 80 platinum discs across the world. Since then James has become a household name and hasn't just won over his fans with his songs but also his charm, good humour and self-irony. In the meantime he has sold over 20 million albums and nearly 13 million singles and is a regular on the arena circuit.

James Blunt is looking forward to returning to the country he spent 10 years in as a boy and playing at one the capital city's most picturesque open-air locations. The IFA Sommergarten is only open for concerts during IFA, the world's leading exhibition for Consumer Electronics and Home Appliances.
