FAQs

What is the obligatory entry and what does it include?

- ▶ The obligatory entry is a media entry according to the participation conditions of Messe Berlin GmbH and includes the company name, street, house number, post code, place, P.O. Box, country, hall and stand number in the alphabetical list of exhibitors .

I only want to appear with services that are included in the obligatory entry. Do I have to send an order anyway?

- ▶ To guarantee the correctness and completeness of your data we would ask you to fill in order form B1 and send it back to us.

Are all entries liable with costs?

- ▶ The obligatory basic entry is part of the trade fair registration. Therefore it is free of charge. All additional services will be charged extra. I have already placed an order.

Can I still change it or do further bookings?

- ▶ You can change or place additional orders at any time until the deadline. After order placement you will receive a printer's proof for the verification of your entries. In case of changes or additions you can write them on this document.

How should I communicate my corrections to NEUREUTER FAIR MEDIA GmbH?

Can I change the layout of my entry in the exhibitor directory?
